

Recovery Friendly Workplace

SUMMIT COUNTY

About
Recovery Friendly Workplace
Summit County

Recovering citizens are resourceful, resilient, and ready to work! Recovery Friendly Workplace practices are good for businesses, employees and communities.

Benefits of Being A Recovery Friendly Workplace:

- ✓ Linkage to Addiction and Recovery Resources for Employees
- ✓ More Exposure
- ✓ Increased Morale
- ✓ Access to a Recovery Friendly Workplace Advocate
- ✓ More Supportive Workplace Culture
- ✓ Options for Employees Who Show Signs of Concern Relating to Substance Use

70% of people who use substances are Employed. Employers are incurring the costs.*

An employee in recovery saves their employer an average of $8,500 per year.*

*Information sourced from 2020 research by NORC at the University of Chicago, the National Safety Council, & recoveryfriendlyworkplace.com

Help to support the safety, health and wellness of staff.

Reduce the Stigma of Recovery

Connect Your Employees with Important Resources

Distinguish Yourself
as a Forward-
Thinking Employer

For more information: mwaala@sched.org | scph.org/rfw

Summit County Public Health | Working today for a healthier tomorrow.

1867 West Market Street, Akron, OH 44313 | 330-923-4891 | scph.org